

BIG SANDY NEWS LOUISA, KY.

The boys have been enjoying the first skating of the season.

No services at the M. E. Church South last Sunday morning.

K. F. Prichard, of Catlettsburg, was in town several days last week.

Editor Marcum, of the Democrat, came up to attend the big meeting.

We now have only one meat store, Vincer and Arnett having consolidated.

Peach Orchard coal is now selling at this place for seven cents per bushel delivered. Good!

John Thomas, of the river improvement corps, has returned from Lebanon, O.

One thousand dollars have been subscribed towards the building of a Baptist church in this place.

Quarterly meeting at the M. E. Church last Sunday. The communion services were held at night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Thomas have returned from Ohio and are domiciled for the present at Judge Rice's.

Rev. Mr. Dickerson, of Wayne county, preached for the Baptists in the Masonic Hall last Sunday evening.

John Cahill, of New York city is visiting his relatives in Louisa and Cassville. Will remain during the winter.

The South Methodist Church has received a large number of Gospel Songs for use in church and Sunday School.

The coldest night of the season was Sunday night. The mercury dropped to the neighborhood of 0, and the wind howled like a fiend.

Messrs. George M. Johnson, of Mason co., W. Va., and John E. Johnson, of Charleston, W. Va., are visiting their uncle, G. F. Johnson.

Capt. Allen and men were in town Monday en route for home, work on the Caines' creek and Brons wells have temporarily closed.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that we are to have a new undertaker in Louisa. Can he mean anything personal by setting up so near two physicians?

On the last night of the Baptist meeting the pulpit was handsomely decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. At the commencement of his sermon Brother Jolly alluded in beautiful terms to the compliment.

To OUR CUSTOMERS who have been running accounts with us—We are anxious to get all accounts settled up by the first of January, as we expect to make some change in our business at that time.

SNYDER BROS.

Revs. W. T. Jolly and J. K. Nunnally left Louisa Saturday morning for their respective homes, delighted with the success which crowned their efforts here, and carrying with them the good wishes of our people.

Since he assumed the office of Collector Gen. James Robinson has collected over a million of dollars in this district.

The Frank Preston went down last Friday night, having on board one hundred and ten 'moonshiners' and witnesses, and heavily loaded with produce. She transference her passengers and freight at Catlettsburg to the Ingomar, which boat carried them to Cincinnati. Capt. M. Freese went along in command.

Our citizens were quite liberal in their contributions toward defraying the expenses incurred by our Baptist brethren during their recent protracted meeting. After paying the sexton a liberal compensation for his labors the remainder of the church collection was turned over to the South Methodist Church to pay for coal and oil.

A CARD.

We take this opportunity to thank the good people of Louisa for their kind reception and interest in us while in their midst. Also the brethren of the Methodist Church South for the use of their house, and the Big Sandy News and Mr. Sullivan, the ferryman, for favors.

W. T. JOLLY.
Dec. 5th. J. K. NUNNELLY.

A cold wave struck this vicinity last Friday night, lowering the temperature several degrees in as many minutes. The cold increased until Sunday night when it culminated in the coldest night of the season. Monday night the mercury rose several degrees, and toward morning a light rain fell, freezing as it came, so that by morning pedestrianism was an exceedingly dangerous business.

At the close of the services Friday night the Baptist Church held a business meeting, at which time the following resolution was presented to the church and unanimously adopted by a rising vote: RESOLVED, That we, the Baptist Church of Louisa, acknowledge our gratitude to the M. E. Church, South, of Louisa, for the use of their house during our meeting, and that we hereby tender a hearty vote of thanks for the same.

The following was also unanimously adopted by the large and attentive congregation: RESOLVED, That we, the citizens of Louisa and vicinity, irrespective of denominational belief or preference, hereby tender to Revs. W. T. Jolly and J. K. Nunnally our thanks for their able and successful labors among us during this series of meetings.

For Instant Use

As a reliable remedy, in cases of Croup, Whooping Cough, or sudden Colds, and for the prompt relief and cure of throat and lung diseases, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is invaluable. Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa, writes: "I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy for home use. I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults." John H. Stoddard, Petersburg, Va., writes: "I have never found a medicine equal to

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

for the prompt relief of throat and lung diseases peculiar to children. I consider it an absolute cure for all such affections, and am never without it in the house." Mrs. L. E. Herman, 187 Mercer st., Jersey City, writes: "I have always found Ayer's Cherry Pectoral useful in my family." B. T. Johnson, Mt. Savage, Md., writes: "For the speedy cure of sudden Colds, and for the relief of children afflicted with Croup, I have never found anything equal to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is the most potent of all the remedies I have ever used." W. H. Stiekler, Terra Haute, Ind., writes: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured my wife of a severe lung affection, supposed to be Quick Consumption. We now regard the Pectoral as a household necessity." E. M. Breckenridge, Brainard, Minn., writes: "I am subject to Bronchitis, and, wherever I go, am always sure to have a bottle of

with me. It is without a rival for the cure of bronchial affections."

results from that true contentment which indicates perfect health of body and mind. You may possess it, if you will purify and invigorate your blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. E. M. Howard, Newbern, N. C., writes: "I suffered for years with scrofulous humors. After using two bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I

Found

great relief. It has entirely restored me to health." James French, Atchison, Kans., writes: "To all persons suffering from Liver Complaint, I would strongly recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with a disease of the liver for nearly two years, when a friend advised me to take this medicine. It gave prompt relief, and has cured me." Mrs. H. M. Kibler, 25 Dwight st., Boston, Mass., writes: "For several years I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family. I never feel safe, even without it. As a liver medicine and general purifier of the blood, it has no equal." Mrs. A. B. Allen, Winterset, Va., writes: "My youngest child, two years of age, was taken with Bowel Complaint, which we could not cure. We tried many remedies, but he continued to grow worse, and finally became so reduced in flesh that we could only move him upon a pillow. It was suggested by one of the doctors that Sarsaparilla might be the cause of the trouble. We procured a bottle of and commenced giving it to him. It surely worked wonders, for, in a short time, he was completely cured."

At Home
